

1. What is Gesture control – It a smart call handling feature supported by Pepperl+Fuchs devices, specifically on S03
2. How gesture control feature works - Double-tap on the blank area of the Home screen to turn the screen off and lock the screen. Within Settings App, an option to enable/disable this feature. By default, the option should be turned on. Double tap to wake up or turn off the Display on the lock screen. Within Settings App, an option to enable/disable this feature. By default, the option should be turned on.
3. Gesture control can be found in device settings under Settings -> Custom Feature